

Author Amy Kwei ("Under The Red Moon: A Chinese Family in Diaspora" and "A Concubine for the Family") will discuss the historical and cultural background of her chronicle involving a Shanghai family surviving war, revolution, exile and political division. The family in her novels are based, in part, on the real-life experiences that her own family endured.

Q&A and book selling/signing to follow for those interested. Complimentary Chinese snacks will be served.

Sponsored by the Friends of the Library.
